EASLEY APPOINTS FOX TO RESPIRATORY CARE BOARD

Raleigh - Gov. Mike Easley has appointed Lisa L. Fox of Clemmons to the North Carolina Respiratory Care Board.

Fox is the area manager for Personnel Resource Group in Winston-Salem. She is a board member and organizer for the Winston-Salem Cystic Fibrosis Foundation Great Strides program and a board member for the N.C. Association of Staffing Professionals. Fox received her bachelor's degree in computer science from Elon College.

The Respiratory Care Board works to protect the public from the unqualified practitioners and from unprofessional conduct by respiratory care providers. There are 10 members on the board, each serving a 3-year term. The governor appoints two members.
